Additional exercises

a) Write a short piece on Edgar Wallace.

Richard Horatio Edgar Wallace (April 1, 1875 - February 10, 1932) was a prolific British crime writer, journalist and playwright, who wrote 175 novels, 24 plays, and countless articles in newspapers and journals. Over 160 films have been made of his novels, more than any other author.

In the 1920s, one of Wallace's publishers claimed that a quarter of all books read in England were written by him.

He is most famous today as the co-creator of "King Kong", writing the early screenplay and story for the movie, as well as a short story "King Kong" (1933) credited to him and Draycott Dell. He was known for the J. G. Reeder detective stories, The Four Just Men, the Ringer, and for creating the Green Archer character during his lifetime.

b) Look at Mr. Jaggs. How does he speak differently than the others?

"Beg pardon, miss," he said raucously, "name of Jaggs! And I have reported for dooty!"

He uses short sentences and the author stresses his pronunciation by writing the words differently.

c) Find out who Lucretia Borgia was.

Lucretia Borgia was an Italian noblewoman and daughter of Pope Alexander VI. A notorious reputation precedes her, and she is inextricably, and perhaps unfairly, linked to the crimes and debauchery of her family.

d) What is the difference between realize and realise?

Realise and realize are different spellings of the same word, and both are used to varying degrees throughout the English-speaking world. Realize is the preferred spelling in American and Canadian English, and realise is preferred outside North America. The spelling distinction extends to all derivatives of the verb, including realised/realized, realising/realizing, and realisation/realization.
